God's Search for Man

[Christianity] does not tell of a human search for God at all,
but of something done by God for, to, and about, Man....

The process [of God's selection within mankind] grows narrower and narrower, sharpens at last into one small bright point like the head of a spear.

It is a Jewish girl at her prayers.

All humanity (so far as concerns
its redemption)

has narrowed

to that.

—C.S. Lewis, Miracles
